

What would you like to cooperate on? - EBLIDA NAPLE PL2030 Joint Event, 18th April, 2023

What would you like to cooperate on?	Name / organisation / country	E-mail address
International exchange librarians internship / for purpose of improving language and librarian skills	Ponak Mvoivek	Vonovec@gmail.com
I am looking for librarians who have organised human libraries	Hanna Toraubully, Lyon, France	Hanna.toraubully@enssib.fr ;
Building up competencies; Implications of the transformation of reading habits and information needs for library practice and statistics	Izabela Korys, National library of Poland	i.korys@bn.org.pl
Improving library staff competencies for working in information based society in the time of emerging technologies to engage with communicates and be at the forefront of integrating new technologies and innovations in libraries.	Ales Klemen, Ljubjana City Library, Slovenia	ales.klemen@mklj.si
Concrete ways to work on new skills for library staff (community engagement, user centered design).	Els, Library of Gent, Belgium	els.vanrompay@stad.gent
Coaching / mentoring of young professionals	CNL
Bridging the digital divide	Andrew Cranfield, Denmark	jahcranfield@hotmail.com
How to turn your library more self-managed or community oriented	Saara Ihamäki, Helsinki City library	Saara.ihamaki@hel.fi
Nadine Abel BNL	Switching from Aleph to Alnia, experience of changing cataloguing systems.	nadine.abel-esslingen@bnl.etat.lu
Creating forums for visitors to participate in a democratic society at public libraries	City of Landskrona, Sweden	martin.kelmemetkonick@landskrona.se
How to strengthen the important of international exchange for library workers	Hella Klauser, German Library Association	Klauser@bibliotheksverband.de
Stem projects; Democratic Citizenship;	ABC Huis, The Netherlands	e.winters@abchuis.nl
Effective methods to get children to read. What are successful interventions?	Raquel Garcia, Hogeveen public library	r.garcia@bibliotheekhogeveen.nl
The library as a democratic place and participation	Corinna Meinel, Chemnitz Public Library, Germany	corinna.meinel.1@stadt-chemnitz.de
Ways of cooperation between levels of decision, local to regional, national to regional, regional to local, and between agencies with nearby mission; Services to users belonging to minorities, for example national minorities, regional minorities, "small languages" with need of particular support (Sami, Romani Chub, Gaelic etc.)	Elisabet Rundqvist, KB Sweden	elisabet.rundqvist@kb.se
Frugal Innovation	Eleonore Clavreul, BPI, France	Eleonore.clavreul@bpi.fr

Building a 5 – 10 year strategy for public libraries	Zelia Parreira, Portugal	Zelia.parreira@gmail.com
Curious about library diplomacy to advance shared global policies?	Randolf Mariano, Norway	Randolf.mariano@vit.no
How can a library build a relevant multilingual collection that meets the needs of our diverse city	Ingrid Verdonck, Belgium	Ingrid.verdonck@stad.gent.be
Shared central cataloguing system in RDF / bibframe instead of MARC21; Shared e-lending system (open source)	Gwenny, Cultuur Connect, Belgium	gwenny.vlaemynck@cultuurconnect.be
Competency analysis and development for the hybrid library	Mikkel Christoffersen, Denmark	c45c@kk.dk
CHAT GPT and AI development, challenges for public libraries	Vincent Bonnet, Aix en Provence,	bonnetv@mairie@aixenprovence.fr
Folio implementation	Daniel Bechny, CZ	bechny.daniel@svkpk.cz
Improving library infrastructure for civic and community participation activities	Els Van Rompay, Gent	els.vanrompay@stad.gent
Share your disaster plans, Chart of collections	Stefano Parise, Milan	info@mediolanensia.it
We're looking for a European partner (library) on developing democratic citizenship of 18 year olds.	Rixt & Arjen, The Netherlands	r.heegsma@bmf.nl

